

exploration worksheet what is faith?

“The world is too screwed up... what’s God doing for me now?... You have to put faith in something...”

Where would you consider you are in relation to God?

In the space below draw a house. This house represents God.

Now draw yourself in relation to the house. This represents where you are with your faith in God.

