

articulate

The role of a christian leader today is to articulate their inner life. - Henry Nouwen.

describe your role as a group discuss the following in relation to your role and write down your thoughts focus commitment weakness

write down and discuss where you need help/support what do you find difficult about your role “no leader can do it alone” write down where others need help/support how do you maintain your inner-life discuss born leaders vs. grown leaders who do you most admire in the bible share some ideas about spending time with god

time with friends
time with family

take some time out as a team to share where you are in your journey what are you finding hard
